Interested in Private Voice Lessons?

I would love to work with you! I will be offering private voice lessons throughout the 2018/2019 school year. I graduated from STC East in 2000 and went on to study voice at Augustana College. I recently finished my Masters in Vocal Performance from Northern Illinois University. Check out my website for more information and recordings!

Lessons will be once a week during the students lunch period, study hall or choir. Lessons are $25 each, and are half a class period long. The arrangement of lesson times, payments and other provisions are handled directly between me and the student (and the students' parents.)

Please contact me (email, call or text) or hand in this form to Mr. Jones as soon as possible.

I look forward to working with you!
